

Bridge Week

Monday, January 15 - Friday, January 19, 2018

Barbara Seagram is the author of many bridge books, including being a co-author of the popular and widely known book 25 Bridge Conventions You Should Know. This book received the American Bridge Teacher' Association of the Year award in 1999, and is now in its 13th printing. Barbara is a Life Master and a Master Teacher.

John Rayner is one of Canada's foremost bridge players, having won Canadian Championships in three categories, and has represented Canada at World Bridge Championships multiple times. His greatest passion, however, is teaching others our fabulous game. John has taught thousands of aspiring students for over forty-five years with clarity and humor.

Michael Donnelly A bridge teacher for nearly 20 years, Michael Donnelly is a beloved teacher from Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Known for his humor, logic and helpful handouts, Michael is able to help students relate and feel less intimidated by the intricacies of advanced play.

Bridge Week - Cost: $275 per person